THE OIL REGION OF BELMONT COUNTY. -About thirty-five years ago a salt well was drilled on the farm of Josiah Dillon, on Captina Creek, and at the depth of about 200 feet an opening was struck which bursted out and flowed a quantity of oil, estimated by old settlers at a great number of barrels. On one or two occasions it caught fire on the water and burned for twenty four hours at a time. The well was abandoned. it is said, in consequence of the proprietors not being able to tube out the oil and gasthe force of the pressure being so strong that the tubing introduced was immediately

Oil has been collected at different points along the Creek for more than forty years. On the farm now owned by Dr. Armstrong. John Brown collected and bottled oil and used it for medical purposes, more than thirty years ago.

In 1861 a well was sunk to the depth of 200 feet on the farm of Wm. Armstrong, with a fine show of oil in it.

In 1865 a company sunk a well about one hundred yards from the former, on the land of Dr. Armstrong, and at a depth of 200 feet struck a vein of oil and gas from which was dipped about ten gallons per day with the sand pump, until several barrels had been collected. The company not having any pump, did not test it, but continued boring until, at a dapth of 360 feet, they struck a soft rock which mixed up into mud, and, in pumping it out, the upper orevice was stopped thereby. When their pump arrived they could not succeed in opening it ugain. From this first erevice a stream of gas flowed with the oil, which which are the two wells already partly sunk -and the farms of M. Hendershot and G. A Mooney, adjoining the old salt well.

These lands are stocked at a capital of $150,000. Shares $50 each. Seventy five thousand dollars worth of the shares are set apart for working capital, of which a suffi-cient number are to be sold—say $8,000 to raise funds for operating and developing the territory; the remaining will continue in the treasury until eil is struck in paying quantities, when they can immediately be sold at a premium and the proceeds divided among the stockholders.

If the Company get one twenty barrel well, that itself will pay about one per cent. per menth on the entire capital stock. There STORMING the STRONGHOLDS is room on the lands of the company for of prejudice and misapprehension, and carrying all more than one thousand wells, and of course if successful in procuring good wells the shares will become immensely valuable.

The Company proposes to open books for subscription to its capital stock in a few weeks. The notice may be found in our advertising columns.

OUR SANITARY CONDITION. - We call the MEW attention of our town authorities and our citizens generally to the sanitary condition of our town. It is absolutely certain that our country will be visited by the Asiatio Cholers the coming Summer. It has already crossed the Atlantic and is raging in the West Indies and other islands in the Carribbean Sea, and as soon as the weather gets warmer it will commence its dreadful march north

In the present condition of our town, the Cholera would run riot in it; but if we act promptly and thoroughly we may avoid it altogether. Every street and alley and yard and cellar in the town should be thoroughly cleansed and purified. This work should be general. The Council ought (if they have not already) to appoint a good Sanitary Committee, who should see to cleaning up the streets and alleys, and inspect every celler and yard in the town, and enforce cleanlines .

This should be done at once. There is no time to lose. If we put it off until we hear subscribers who find their papers marked thus the Cholera is in Wheeling or Bridgeport, and then commence cleaning away the dirt. it will only make matters worse; and some fine morning we will see the grim monster marching up our streets and laughing at our Court did not organize on Tuesday .-Judge Kennon came home from Woodsfield quite sick, and is still confined to his room. There are some fears that he is dangerously sick.

The town was full of parties who came to attend Court as jurors, witnesses, and litigants. They and the Bar were restless; but of course no business could be done.

In the forenoon a telegram was sent to Judge Evans, who is holding Court at Zanesville, in the hope that he would come down and open the Court, and then some member of the Bar, by the consent of litigants, could occupy the bench; but Judge Evans could not come. Judge McIlvaine was then telegraphed at New Philadelphia, but at this writing we have heard of no reply having been received.

If the Court is not opened to-morrow, we believe it must go over.

-Since writing the above, a despatch has been received from J. H. Collins, E-q., at Zanesville, announcing that Judge Evans will be here to-night.

DAN RICE, the circus celebrity, will hardly be considered a radically prejudiced observer of Southern feeling, and his account of the quality of loyalty exhibiting itself at the South, may have weight with many who would not accept other reports. He has just returned from a tour through the Southern States, with his menagerie and circus, and the Eric Dispatch repeats a conversation held with him upon the subject. He states that "except at Government institu-tions, as soldiers' barracks or officers' head-quarters, the United States flag was rarely seen. No steamer below the mouth of the Ohio flies the flag, no hotel in the Southern cities spreads it to the breeze, and no men agerie or circus even, which usually dis-plays the flags of all nations, raises it.
